

Telling Our Stories: Community Building and Leadership

3rd National Joint Librarians of Color Conference

Sunday, September 30, 2018

Albuquerque Convention Center

Upper Level – East Complex

Room: 240 La Cienaga

Albuquerque, New Mexico

AGENDA

7:30 – 7:45am Greetings and Introductions

Tess Tobin Past-President REFORMA

Jacqueline Ayala REFORMA President 1998-1999 - Principal Librarian, San Diego County

Sandra Annette Toro, Ph.D. Senior Program Officer, Office of Library Services. Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS)

7:45 – 8:00am

Message from the REFORMA President - Madeline Peña Feliz - Los Angeles Public Library

History of REFORMA – John Ayala “El Padrino” of REFORMA. President 1974-1976

8:00-8:30am Small Group Discussion

8:30-9:00am Exchange of Ideas Discussion

9:00-9:15am Wrap up and Photos

La Cienaga – Albuquerque Convention Center - East Complex Upper Level

http://www.albuquerquecc.com/Floor_Plans.aspx

This project was made possible in part by the Institute of Museum and Library Services grant Telling Our Stories: Community Building to Recruit and Retain Latinx to the Library Profession RE-00-17-0130-17